

INTRODUCTION

- * God's plan for Christ to come into the world was not a mystery. He had planned it before the foundations of the world were laid.
- * From the beginning, God gave indicators that He would Himself come and provide the payment price for our redemption.
- * The book of Job is considered to be the earliest recorded writing in the Scriptures. Job is considered to be a contemporary of Noah and Abram.
- * In the book of Job, we see incredible evidence that God had already communicated His plan to man before Moses' recorded the creation account
